New Patent-Pending Line of Home Fragrances Unveiled: Palettes by Tod Young[®]

ORLANDO, FL – Renowned designer Tod Young is introducing the most creative home fragrance line ever created: Palettes by Tod Young[®].

Palettes is the first and only line of home fragrances that has been designed to become part of your decor by coordinating color inspired fragrances that interpret the aromatic tones colors communicate. These six distinct fragrances simultaneously correspond to and complement the colors you have chosen to decorate your home regardless of interior design or furniture style.

“We’re adding an entirely new dimension to home décor by telling the world what these timeless color palettes smell like,” said Young. “My cologne for the home product is ideal for anyone who appreciates an enjoyable living experience in their domain.”

Due to the uniqueness of the line, Palettes By Tod Young[®] is patent pending. The product is available in candle and spray format and beautifully packaged for Primary, Pastel, Jewel, Earth, Gray & Neutral interiors. The fragrances were developed in conjunction with the oldest and most respected fragrance house in France.
